

EuroLeague - Men

The EuroLeague is the top tier European club competition. It was created as European Champions Cup by FIBA in 1958. The name changed to FIBA European League in 1991 as not only the national champions are allowed to compete, but more big clubs were invited. 1996 - 1999 the name was FIBA EuroLeague. In 2000 the Union des Ligues Européennes de Basket Ball (ULEB) decided to create its own competition independent from FIBA, simply called EuroLeague.

In the seasons 2001/02 and 2005/06 - 2015/16 there exists agreements between FIBA Europe and ULEB harmonizing the several club competitions.
