

FIBA - Fédération Internationale de Basket-ball

On 1932, Jun 18 the national federations of ARG, GRE, ITA, LAT, POR, ROU, SUI and TCH founded the Fédération Internationale de Basket-ball (FIBB) in Genève. The initial dispute with the International Handball Federation (FIHA), founded in 1928, which also claimed to control the game, was enclosed with a contract dated 1934, Sep 01 in favor of FIBB.

In 1937, the organization changed its name to Fédération Internationale de Basket-ball Amateur (FIBA).

The headquarters moved from Roma to Bern in 1940. 1956 - 1992 the FIBA resides in München, since then in Genève. At the 13th FIBA Congress (01/02 Jul 1986), the word "amateur" was deleted from the name of FIBA.

2017: 214 national federations
